SIR,

With reference to your letter No: 7107 dated the 9th February 1940 and subsequent reminder No: G.9677/Census dated the 20th May 1940 in regard to the request of the Mysore Agnivamsha Kshatriya Sangha, Tumkur for changing the name of the community from "Thigalar" to "Agnivamsha Kshatriya" in the Census of 1941, have the honour to state that the Thigalars have never been classed as Kshatriyas in any previous censuses and the change of name as proposed would lead to confusion, as it is conceivable that persons may mistake them for Kshatriyas. As observed by Mr M. Venkatesaiengar in paragraph 346 on page 317 of Part I of his Census Report of 1931; "When a community not generally considered as Brahmin or a Kshatriya community, wants to adopt a name that makes it appear as a sub caste among Brahmins or Kshatriyas, the proposal is rejected".

2. I therefore recommend that the change of name proposed by the Agnivamsha Kshatriya Sangha may not be accepted, from the Census point of view.

3. The enclosure viz., the copy of the Resolution of the Sangha is herewith returned as desired.
